Chamber Membership Subs 2010

To the few of you who haven't as yet paid this year's subscription (due each April), we are very sorry but we have had to remove your details from the Chamber website. If this is simply an oversight on your part, just contact Alex or Kathryn (contact details to the left) and we will happily and gladly reinstate your entry.

If you are new to Tetbury and would like to learn more about our Chamber and the works of the Committee, please do feel free to come along to our next meeting (see below for details). A special introductory offer is available to new Businesses of just £20.00 membership for the remainder of this subscription year - again please just contact Alex or Kathryn.

It's 'In the Bag'...

You've all been so patient and very, very soon you'll be able to get your hands on 'the Bag of The Year' - yes THE Tetbury Bag 2010, this year sporting green type, will be available to purchase at this year's Food and Drink Festival. As mentioned in August's Chamber Newsletter, we have been both charmed and amazed by the variety of items that proud owners of THE Tetbury Bag have used their bag to carry, so here's the best of the best, taken at last year's Festival. This little chap couldn't be happier, could he?

Christmas in Tetbury 2010

More info to follow soon on plans for Christmas in Tetbury 2010, however to 'wet your appetite', we can tell you that Tetbury Chamber and Tetbury in Bloom are joining forces to make it the best ever and thanks to a small grant, we will be able to offer Businesses an all-in-one package for Christmas trees and lighting, as well as promoting a series of events throughout December, designed to encourage visitors to the town.

Harness The Marketing Power of the Internet

Tetbury-based Business Coach Simon Thurston, has written a new book, which teaches Businesses how to harness the marketing power of the internet to benefit their Business. Simon's book The Death of Traditional Marketing - A New Revolution Is Here, de-mystifies the world of online marketing and explains how smaller firms can quickly and easily use technology to free-up more time, win new customers and enhance relationships with existing clients. The book is available on Amazon.com, however to avoid shipping from the US, you can order it direct from Simon by emailing him at book@simonpaulthurston.co.uk at a cost of £12.00, with all proceeds going to worthwhile local causes.

Events

The Fourth Cotswold Food and Drink Festival...

...will be held in Tetbury later this month with lots of new and exciting developments this year, including tours of Shipton Mill, Bow in The Cloud Vineyard and Duchy Home Farm (where the Veg Shed is located).

Forthcoming Chamber Meetings...

7th October 2010

At the Ormond Tetbury
www.theormondattetbury.co.uk/

Check Out Forthcoming Chamber Events on the Chamber's Website :

www.tetburychamber.org.uk

The Close is playing host to the Gloucester Old Spot Sausage Appreciation Dinner on 22nd September with guest speaker Richard Lutwyche from the Gloucester Old Spot Breeders Association and author of 'Pig Keeping' and the soon to be published 'Higgledy Piggledy'.

Rob Rees MBE, otherwise known as 'The Cotswold Chef', will be visiting St Mary's Primary School and Sir William Romney's Secondary School during the event.

The Priory will be holding their very popular Ale and Cider Day on Saturday 25th when the judging of this year's Tetbury Taters Competition will also take place, organised by The Friends of Tetbury Hospital.

There will be a Wine Tasting Evening in the Market Hall on Saturday 25th - anyone who has attended one of Jackie Wheels' presentations in the past will tell you what a fun and informative time these events always prove to be.

The Market on Sunday 26th will be the best so far with over 40 stalls from mostly local suppliers and artisans, so we are encouraging businesses to open up on that Sunday to make the most of the additional trade and visitors to the town. The Snooty Fox have promised to hold their Sausage and Cider Day, so there will be more than enough sustenance to keep you going through the whole day.

Weather permitting, there will be a series of cookery demonstrations throughout the Market Day from talented and also, Celebrity Chefs, including local lady Uma Wyld, Queen of Posh Nosh and Telegraph columnist Xanthe Clay. More to be announced nearer the time.

The Potting Shed in Crudwell (who played host to the most recent and extremely successful Ladies in Business gathering the other week), will round off events with a specially devised Quiz Night that evening.

There's still time to join in, just contact Kathryn Limoi (contact details to the left) or Stephen Hirst at thehirsties@aol.com.

Tickets and reservations for events can be made at The Tourist Information Centre in Church Street and up to date information can be obtained from www.tetburyfooddrinkfestival.com.
